Fall 1995

“the quiet rebirth”

Spring 1995/1996 would prove to be a weird year with the new construction on the campus; We were left with a strange turn of events, the season would be played in the fall and then again in the Spring. With the second championship and one homecoming championship I felt I had now pulled the “hat trick” so again, I was itching to offload the responsibility of the team to someone else to deal with. I would of course remain as acting CEO and write the newsletters but wanted to pass the baton off... Scott Hager then agreed to run the team for the Spring 1996 season if I would just do the recruiting and get the team together in the Fall of 1995 while he took a semester to do an internship.

So, I went out and found a few players we could use and was fortunate enough to acquire Noriyuki “The Assassin” Kobayashi, Mike McNeish, “Dickie”, and the toxic twins - Brian “I’m such a” Messer and Steve “Cool One” Hancock...

When Scott returned for the Spring 1996 season, he had a nice selection of talent to work with and of course it paid off with a third FUBAR “A” league championship. The FUBAR War Machine was again rolling...

FUBARS

Any Questions?...

Hello FUBARIANS, welcome to the front-lines. The FUBAR War Machine (FWM) has been recently renovated, rejuvenated, and Re-enforced. The FUBAR Management have purchased a few "Goodies" for the FWM and plan to unleash the beast this Sunday. It will be brutal.

So, "What has been going on with the FUBAR's?" This question has plagued the millions of FUBAR fans for the past few months, so here we are to put the arguments to rest.

The FUBAR's were under a semi-reconstructive period during the fall season last year. CEO Dave "The Wave" Moeder was called back from FUBAR Island ($28^{\circ} 38'N$ $75^{\circ} 57'W$) in order to "maintain" the FUBAR integrity through-out the transition. "The FUBAR's needed to build a new cohesive bond in order to allow for a smooth flow when Scott "The Horrible" Hager takes the helm" said Moeder at a press conference. Through-out, the fall season, CEO Moeder with his elite group of recruiters went on a mission to rebuild the organization. Operation "Moneybucks" was a huge success and the acquisition of several players ensued.

The FUBAR's acquired Brian "Mohawk" Messer from a AAA ball-club in Seattle. Brian was signed to a two season contract and was forced to leave his fans (who coincidentally, threw the biggest "See ya later, you sucked anyway" party). "Dickie" (who knows his real name anyway?) was acquired after an extensive talent search in Daytona Beach, Florida. "All I want are some smokes!" said the talented ball-player, and signed an indefinite contract with the club. A.J. "Push-Up King" Berlotti dug deep into the recesses of his mind and brought forth the name "Barney" (He's seeking counseling) as a possible recruit for the team. Actually, the name was Chris "Jaws" Odell. Chris was recruited for his raw talent and ability to crush beer cans with his genitalia (he can be rented out for parties.) Chris' brute strength and mass will surely be an asset to the organization. Some of our correspondents went far and wide to recruit players, and one recruiter struck gold when he ran into Noriyuki "The Ninja" Kobayashi. The agility and speed of this player can be summed up in only one word, "AWESOME". However, Nori is currently on the DL nursing a back injury, and hopes to recover for the first game. The FUBAR's have also acquired Steve "HAND?" Hancock (think about it!?) and plan to utilize this secret weapon through-out the season. As well as these fine players, Mike "Squirrel" McNeesh (I have no idea if I spelled that correctly, nor do I really care for that matter) was picked up early last Saturday at a FUBAR Event. The contract negotiations were intense, but after much debate, Mike was willing to sign up. "Mike, wanna play?..." "Sure!" Finally, the big money pick-up was Geoff "I'm not" White. The FUBAR's found this gentleman through the FUBAR Pilot Training Program (FPTP) after he was washed out for going AWOL. So there you have the additions to the organization for Spring '96. The FUBAR's are still actively seeking players to fill a few voids.

The veterans are back, and feeling good as well. Mark "The Shark" Avellino was questioned about his views and his comments were, "I feel very confident, we have a lot of solid players... well, if you're not counting that A.J. Kid!" Paul "I'm not a traitor" Johnson is back after a short stint with some OTHER team and commented, "I think we have a shot, thank you, thank you very much." Current Captain Scott "I am the LAW" Hager was quoted as saying, "I like the way we look, and I feel I can take these boys to the Show, we're strong, and underestimated, and when they lift their heads from under the blankets, we'll hit 'em...hard and fast, and when it's over, all they'll have is a nasty headache and a lot of bad memories."

So, The FUBAR's look like they are ready, Only time will tell. For the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION, I'm Dave "The Wave" Moeder reporting. See you at the game. Bring your body-bags.

Spring 1996

“Pain is Temporary, Pride is Forever”

FUBAR News Corporation

"PAIN IS TEMPORARY, PRIDE IS FOREVER." COPYRIGHT 1996
A publication for those with the will to Excel, Conquer, and be Prosperous.

Hello again FUBARIANS, how are we these brisk February days? It appears that Mother Nature has dealt us a brutal blow of cold weather, once again depicting the ultimate force of her power. This unfortunately forced the elite (Yea Right) group of ERAU Umpires to tuck tail between their legs and go home early last Sunday cause it was "TOO COLD, WAAA" Thus the FUBAR organization was left, eager for battle but no opponent to eliminate. The FUBAR's were fortunate enough to see some combat earlier in the week however, when they challenged there arch-rivals GROUND EFFECT (who were on a temporary hiatus.) This was an ugly battle for the boys and casualties were high. The FUBAR's have never seen such carnage inflicted on their own people. Unfortunately, much of the damage was due to "Friendly Fire." FUBAR Management said in a press conference after the incident, "We are going to investigate exactly what transpired on the night of February first and assess what went wrong. We are still interviewing eyewitnesses, and taking statements. Until that process is complete, we will not make a decision on what happened and what will be done to ratify the situation." Immediately following the "Incident", as it is now to be referred, a battered and bloody FUBAR by the name of Brian "Man I'm such a "MESSer, was asked for comments, the only words he could mouth were, "HUH HUH UH HUH, That Sucked Dude, HUH HUH.. We like; got our asses kicked and stuff. HUH HUH." "DAYTONA" Dave Moeder, was approached about the INCIDENT (see how that insignificant footnote earlier has now come into play? What is the author suggesting? Is it sexual? Give examples.) and asked for his opinion. Our reporter is in critical but stable condition, any donations can be sent directly to his family. On to other matters, Noriyuki "DOAN's" Kobayashi (get it?, He had back pains! HA HA . . . nevermind.) was back from the DL, nursing the slipped disc in his lower myocardia, which in turn caused an intense pressure on his lower protruding retinal renal osteosclerosis bone. Man that sounds painful. Oh, anyway, he was back and joined in for the Incident! Investigations for espionage have undergone, and the number one suspect Paul "Benedict Arnold" Johnson has been "detained" for questioning for allegations he sold valuable blueprints to opposition revealing the defense systems of the FUBAR War Machine. Interrogation has been intense with Paul being subject to repeated episodes of The Brady Bunch, Three's Company, and The LOVE Boat. The FUBAR Bureau of Interrogation (FBI - cool huh?) feels Paul will come clean anytime now as his last public spoken words were, "Isaac, I said a Martini shaken not stirred you lousy excuse for a ships' bartender." FUBAR Platoon Leader (FPL - I'm on a roll.) Scott "Rambo" Hager was commended on his heroic efforts at the Incident. Scott's only comment was, "I got shot in the buttocks." Scott will be walking around in a few days, no complications. Mark "Meatball" Avellino was asked about his performance to which he replied, "You know, I do my job and lay down the supporting cover fire, and all I ask is for the men to make the plays...but NOOOO, I'm standing there like a giant target with the saying, "Hit Me, I'm with Stupid!" Hey, I did my job, and that's the story I'm sticking to.!?" Dickie (Do I really need to give him a nickname? . . . Nah.) was seen streaking wildly across the field of battle after the Incident screaming , "Look at my BUM, Look at my BUM." A'J Berlotti is still doing push-up's!! Geoff "I Was at one time" White was asked for his comments, but he hasn't shown up yet?

So, fortunately for the ball-club, the FUBAR Organization had an eye-opener, and luckily in a pre-season Incident, and not a regular season one. King Scott has formulated a new strategic offensive for this coming weekend and assures the FUBAR's will be pummeling their opposition soon. The unveiling will be this weekend. Oh, and here's the pertinent info:

Newton's 1st Law states that an object in motion will stay in motion... Well boys and girls, The FUBAR War Machine IS that object, and it's in motion, so either get in line or get out of the way. You can't stop something that you can't see. The path of destruction left in the wake of the FUBAR onslaught was tremendous with losses estimated in the millions. The aftermath will be felt for quite some time and will be visible for any and all who dare oppose the force called FUBAR's.

Well, the FUBAR's were on a rampage this past weekend, they went out to prove why they are the most feared team in softball, and they did just that! The boys faced a team by the name of Sigma Chi (ΣX), and gave them an @$$ kickin' by any standard. From start to finish, the FUBAR's displayed dominance. Moeder came out swinging and the train kept a rollin' all night long (Aerosmith, c '73). The final toll was 21 for the FUBAR's, one, that's right one for the other team (which is defined as an organized group of individuals who work together to achieve a common goal; which they weren't.) After the slaughter, Paul "no one is worthless, you can always be used as a bad example" Johnson was asked for his comments, "You know, I did everything in my power to undermine the game, but they still won...man they're good." Nori "The Assassin" Kobayashi was seen throughout the fray cutting the hearts out of the enemy, "Without the heart, there is no drive, without the drive, there is no momentum... remember as the great ones used to say, "a cat will almost always blink when hit between the eyes with a hammer!"" Scott "TARDY" Hager was seen after the game drinking the blood from the carcasses of the dead (man that's really disgusting, but people think he's a bad @$$!) and chanting "It's a small world after all, It's a small world after all, ..." A.J. Berlotti tipped a member of the news staff to mention

He Had A BABY Girl!

Well, actually his wife did, otherwise, A.J. would have quite a bit of explaining to do EH? Yes, Elizabeth Berlotti was born a whopping 6 pounds 10 ounces and 19 inches long! Congrats to A.J.

Anyway, back to the death and destruction. Let's hear a few more quotes from the boys, Brian "The Bedwetter" Messer, "Hey man we did good, I made that phenomenal play from centerfield, damn I'm good." Geoff "You cannot defeat the power of the dark side!?" White, "Dude, we had a game? I'll miss it. Then I can only miss 9 more before they throw me out! No Problem." Jake "The magnificent" Benson, "That was a hell of a lot better than last time, we actually played something that looked like softball." Matt "Beef and bean Burrito" Brito, "Hey I walked twice! What's up with that crap?!"

So, the FUBAR's have fired up the coals and are ready to cook! (unlike at Mark's BAR-B-QUE's!) Look out boys and girls, it's about to get nasty. The FUBAR News Corporation has received a generous donation from outside sources and will be purchasing a "company" aircraft, the FUBAR ONE will be operation within a week. The new aircraft will possess state of the art electronic surveillance equipment, laser guidance, and laser tracked weapons systems, "stealth" technology, and Full BAR.(Spared no expense.) The aircraft will allow the FUBAR's to travel expeditiously to various destinations without losing contact with the FUBAR Nest. Scott will have total control of the FUBAR Command Center while airborne and can order troops efficiently to startgeic locations. This new addition to the FUBAR arsenal will only make the FUBAR's more of a force. All are warned with these three words...

WE ARE BACK!

O.K. Kids, here's your favorite part, stat time...

Dave "The Rope" Moeder	2/2	2 runs, 5 rbi's, 2 HR, 1 BB
Brian "My room's a" Messer	2/3	1 run, 2 rbi's, 1 3B
A.J. "DAA DAA" Berlotti	1/2	2 runs, 1 rbi, 1 BB
Mark "The OLD guy" Avellino	1/2	1 run, 1 rbi, 1 2B, 1 SAC
Nori "Godzilla" Kobayashi	3/3	2 runs, 3 rbi's, 1 2B, 1 3B
Chris "Gobstopper" Odell	1/3	1 run, 1 rbi
Steve "The weasel" Hancock	2/3	1 run, 1 rbi
Paul "I did nothing" Johnson	0/2	2 runs, 2 rbi's
Jake "The Ringer" Benson	1/1	2 runs, 1 BB
Mike "and Ike" Mc Neish	1/2	2 runs, 3 rbi's
Scott "The Pharaoh" Hager	0/1	2 runs
Matt "Super soft shell" Brito	0/0	2 runs, 2 BB

So, there you have it! The FUBAR's Statistical Group (FSG) has compiled these for the past week. As a team, the FUBAR's had 24 at bats, and 14 hits. The team is batting .583 with 21 runs. You can sum it up with only one word, AWESOME!

Well, that's last week, and this is this week, so here's the pertinent info:

PRACTICE WED. Feb. 14th @ 2000 (8:00pm) @ Campus Field (MANDATORY)

The FUBAR Video Crew was at the game last week, taking pictures for a documentary on legendary softball organizations. So far they have reviewed the tapes and determined that the throw by Brian "the ARM" Messer was in time, he was safe at Home and, the camera adds ten to fifteen pounds. Oh, and he likes to scratch his butt!? Anyway, eat drink and be merry. Don't be a DICKie, and see you next time!

AVELLINO SIGHTING

EYEWITNESSES.

It appears that an Avellino was sighted in Daytona Beach. Witnesses reported hearing strange grumbling sounds and went to investigate. When they arrived, the creature was startled and ran off into the woods. Witnesses reported the creature was very nervous and twitchy. After a short pursuit, the creature was lost in the blackness of the night. The creature was reported as having facial hair, ten feet high (when not on all fours!), and very dangerous. Police warn residents to stay indoors at night as this is the most probable feeding time. They also warn that if the creature is in fact encountered, no attempt at contact should be made, but if unavoidable, the creature should be given a bottle of Jim Beam as this is the only item the creature had taken from the witnesses camp. This is a very dangerous animal and if seen, contact your local Police department, or shine the FUBAR Homing Beacon!

Hello FUBARIANS, welcome to our forum, where your views are taken, totally changed and rewritten, and redistributed as fact! If you don't think so, well then, take a look at this. An FNC reporter was approached by a member (it was Paul Johnson) of the FUBAR squad and mentioned he knew where to find a "good" time, and offered the FNC an "inside" tip! The reporter immediately realized the situation and replied, "Do you have these "good" times often?" To which Paul replied, "Oh, most definitely, and more frequent all the time!?" The reporter then said, "Thanks you very much, but I'm not that kind of guy!"

Paul, "No I don't think you understand!"

Reporter, "No, I think I understand perfectly (WINK WINK)"

Paul, "You sure!?"

Reporter, "Yeah I'm sure?!"

So, then this headline read on the front page of FUBAR News the next day:

FUBAR Pedophile Runs Rampant in Daytona!

See, we bring you the latest breaking news, even before the guilty party knows they did it!

Anyway, fans have been asking the FUBAR News Corporation to clarify a few terms utilized by members of the club during recent battles, so FNC put it's FUBAR Public Relations Dept. (FPR Dept.) to the test, and here's what they came up with...

Terms:

CANNON	A very strong arm which can propel a ball as if it were shot from a cannon! i.e. "Man, that guys' got a F%#king CANNON!...Holy $&!%!" note: You can substitute any piece of heavy artillery for the word CANNON. i.e. "Man, that guys' got a F%#king Howitzser for an arm!...Holy $&!%" (see, it's easy!)
BLOOPER	A lame hit by a batter that barely makes it out of the infield, but isn't caught
POKE	A hit by the batter that is slightly harder than a BLOOPER, but not as hard as a RIP (see RIP)
RIP	A hit by the batter that is slight harder than a POKE, but not as hard as a ROPE (see ROPE)
RIPPER	One who rips (also has origins back to ancient skateboarding technique.)
ROPE	A solid line drive hit by the batter that will make any wary player* cringe *Dave Moeder is exempt from this rule...you need to have a brain in order to feel ones own mortality from an object hurtling at you some 80MPH!
ROPE-MASTER	A batter who has mastered the art of ROPING. (the name is NORI.)
RAG-ARM	A nickname chanted by the opposing team toward a pitcher who cannot with any form of regularity (HUH HUH UH HUH..irregular sucks!) get the ball to cross the home plate for a strike, therefore walking numerous batters. (Avellino can be used in place as it is synonymous with the term!)
AVELLINO	see RAG-ARM
HOMER	1. character on Matt Groenings' animated sitcom "The Simpsons" 2. when a batter hits a ball beyond the encompassing boundaries of the field (or it's players) and runs around all the bases scoring one or more runs.
GRANNY	1. sweet old lady who gives you a dollar everytime you see her, usually has a distinct odor, and makes the best Apple pie. 2. When a batter hits a HOMER whils there are three runners on the bases, resulting in the scoring FOUR runs.
BOBBLER	When a defensive player has a difficult time handling a RIP/ROPE, resulting in the player rushing the throw to first base, possibly ruining the play, resulting in the runner getting safely to first.
"E"	When a defensive player has an even harder time fielding a ball and can't make a play, or if tried results in a bad throw, and the runner advancing.

So, there you have it, the first installment of the FUBAR Terminology Legend. There will be an oral quiz later in the week. Study Boys and Girls!

Oh, here's the pertinent info.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS BOY?

He has a warrant for his arrest by the FUBAR Police Department.

It appears he has been charged with the following:

- two counts of impersonating a softball player.
- one count of coercing a playing position with the esteemed FUBAR organization
- one count of impersonating a pilot
- four counts of male prostitution
- three counts of money-laundering
- and
- fifteen counts of "drunk" and disorderly conduct

This man should be treated with caution (like an AVELLINO), and approached only if necessary.
He is considered armed and dangerous. Last Seen somewhere in the Daytona Beach area.

That Which Does Not Kill You, Can Only Make You STRONGER

Hello FUBARIANS;... we have met the enemy, and they are ours.

All that is left is to tag 'em, bag 'em, and send 'em home. It appears that the FUBAR War Machine was able to withstand the extreme heat and onslaught of the opposition this past Sunday and remain victorious in not one, but two, count 'em, two battles! The FUBAR's edged out a team by the name of LOW Standards 2-1, and PACK SAUNS 19-10. The first of the encounters was a pure defensive battle with the FUBAR's edging out the LOW STANDARDS with only six hits and two runs! Mark "buns of steel" Avellino pitched a massacre and "K"ed three victims. One word, "Brutal", I think ya hear me knockin', I think I'm comin' in!? In the second encounter after the seize fire ended, the FUBAR War Machine wasted no time annihilating the other team. The Guns came alive fast and furious and when they were done, the only job left was to tally up the kills. Not a pretty picture, let me tell you, I was there baby!

So, the FUBAR's have chalked-up three wins, and are currently ranked number two!

Here's your total stats, as of Sunday Feb. 25, 1996:

Dave "Someone stop the room" Moeder	.667	4/6	5R, 6RBI, 3 BB, 2HR
Brian "INJUN Joe" Messer	.500	3/6	2R, 3RBI, 1 BB, 1 3B, 1SAC
A.J. "Swiss Cheese" Berlotti	.571	4/7	4R, 4RBI, 1 BB
Mark "Wild Thang" Avellino	.500	3/6	3R, 3RBI, 1 2B, 2SAC
Nori "The Asian Assassin" Kobayashi	.750	6/8	4R, 5RBI, 2 2B, 1 3B

Chris "Left-Out (HA HA)" Odell	.375	3/8	2R, 2RBI
Steve "I'm too sexy..." Hancock	.714	5/7	3R, 4RBI, 1 2B, 1SAC
Paul "I play with myself" Johnson	.286	2/7	3R, 3RBI
Jake "...Right On..." Benson	.167	1/6	2R, 1RBI, 1 BB
Matt "TACO's Suck dude; eat a" Brito	.200	1/5	3R, 3RBI, 2 BB
Dickie "hey, my last name's Lewendowski?"	.400	2/5	1R, 2RBI, 1 2B
Mike "Squirrel=Nuts, any ques.?" McNiesh	.500	3/6	5R, 4RBI, 1 BB
Geoff "Yo I gots too much soul to be" White	0.000*	0/0	* same GPA.
Denise "Anybody seen me?" Powell	.000

So, there you have it! As a team, the FUBAR's have scored a total of 41 runs, the opposition has scored only 12! That's a ratio of 3.42:1.00! Team average is .476 (39/82) Scott "The snot" Hager said at a news conference, "We definitely have a few areas to improve, I won't specify, and room to grow; but we're progressing as best can be expected!" Scott was seen being chased out of the conference by A.J. Berlotti who was chanting, "...areas to improve hey, I'll show you areas to improve you piece of $#@$, get over here you %$#%, I'll kick your scrawny little %$@%, you %$^%!" A.J.'s seeking counseling on the "advice" of the FUBAR Organization and is expected to be back on Sunday. In other news, Dave "What a $#@%" Moeder was quoted as saying at the game that he "shaved his thing." We'll leave that one alone! So FUBAR's I sign off for another week with the familiar words, "Has anyone seen Geoff White?" Anyway, stay out of trouble and watch your back...Nori is out there! The only softball player who does all his own stunts is back in the action packed thriller RUMBLE IN DAYTONA. What the hell is wrong with me anyway? See ya.(Love ya Nori.) Daytona Dave

FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION

FUBAR News Corporation, copyright 1996. all rights reserved. USA Volume VII, Edition VI

Hello FUBARIans, welcome to the brisk month of March! It appears that The FUBAR War Machine is not the only thing cold these days. FNC would like to apologize to subscribers for the "lack" of a newsletter last week. It appears that FNC was "unaware" of a clause in our contract with FUBAR Management that states, "...at such time the FUBAR Ball Club performs in a manner deemed "inadequate" by upper officials, The FUBAR News Corporation can at any time be closed until upper officials deem it's operation appropriate." So, last week, I was drinking my Dr Pepper, and BAM, these FUBAR Police Officers come in and shut us down! Threw me out on my @$$! No warning, no files, no last minute "oh I forgot my..." crap, BAM, on my @$$! Got my Dr. Pepper though. Ah, just what the doctor ordered!

So, that was last week, and this is this one and the FUBAR War Machine is still, well, to be Frank...Not Moving! The FUBAR Engineering Corp has reported that the War Machine is ... well, "$#@% UP!" were there exact words! So, FUBAR Management has it's best engineers and designers on the job 24-7, working to correct the problem and get the War Machine back up to speed for the last game or two of regular season. Scott "Bench-Rider, cause I can't shut my trap" Hager was personally overseeing the final remodification of the Machine and had this to say, "I have seen what this baby can do and I know what it's still capable of doing. Oh, I have no doubt that the enemy will feel the full impact of this baby when we come back. I just hope I'm not in the path of this beast when it gets rolling again!" Noriyuki "The silent killer" Kobayashi made this comment, "Should have built it in Japan! Dumb Americans will never learn."

So, FUBAR's and FUBAREtte's, the FUBAR's are in rut, and as they say, "when in a rut do as the ruts do!" Which we still don't know, so that's half the problem, but we're figuring it out! Anyway, the FUBAR's have now lost two! Not one boys and girls, but two battles of this great war we call intramural softball. Oh these are only minor setbacks to the FUBAR Mega-pire, it will return and it will be futile to resist its' power. (Whoa, STAR WARS withdrawal!?)

The FUBAR's have finally seen one of it's players which they signed back in January. Geoff "Not Quite" White made an appearance for the battle against TST. FNC was pleased with his performance, but would like to "see" him at more FUBAR Functions. (like practice and subsequent games!?)

Here's the stats kids, get your programs so you can play at home...

So, there you have the breakdown. I hope there are no discrepancies, and if there are, tough! I call 'em as I see 'em! Any way, there needs to be a little discussing of what transpired during the two recent losses for the FUBAR's.

It appears that during both games, the officiating was less than that considered to be adequate for FUBAR standards and it caused quite an uproar in the FUBAR organization, including Mrs. "I'll kill 'em all" Hager who was seen chasing an umpire with, what we now have learned to be one of Nori's assassin swords screaming, "Out for the season, out for the season, I'll put you out for the rest of your natural born life you %$%@, Get over here!" The FUBAR Law Dept. is working on a settlement. Mark "Avocado" Avellino said after the TST incident, "I don't know what happened, he was tight man, I tried... he wouldn't call a strike if I paid 'em" Dave "#23 in your program; #1 in your heart" Moeder was asked about the game, he would give no comment, but did express his appreciation for the press. (in other words, he flipped us the bird!)

After the TST robbery, The FUBAR's were back for the attack last Sunday against The Sweathogs? It was a dark and stormy day, and the FUBAR's wanted blood; however, they would not quench that thirst this day and would have to settle for another blow to the FUBAR midsection. "Little" Dickie was asked for a comment and gave this one, "Sorry I was late, but ... hey I'm gonna go, I'm freezing my "Dickie" off out here!" Scott "Bench-Warmer" Hager was in attendance, but unable to assist the boys. Several FUBAR's were not in attendance due to prior commitments, or illness, bet you can guess one of 'em? Come on try! I'll give you three guesses, first two don't count!

So FUBAR's the ball-club will be under a two week hiatus. However, practice will still be

Wednesday, March 13th @ 8:00pm at Campus Field

So be there if you want to hang with the "cool" kids. FUBAR's -Everybody's doin' it!? See you on the field. Your friend and confidant...

Hello FUBARIANS, how goes it? It appears that the FUBAR's are tan, rested, and ready for the next stage in the battle for the almighty piece of plastic! It seems that after a three week hiatus, the boys are being shipped to the front-lines once again. This was delayed one week as mother nature had other plans and operation "KICK @$$" had to be delayed, thus the three week cease-fire instead of two! FUBAR Management had reported hearing rumors that the organization may not be combat ready when they are sent to battle, but FUBAR strategists report the boys will be ready willing and able!

The team gathered last Saturday for practice drills. Thanks for coming! FUBAR Upper Management was quite displeased with the turnout. The usual people were in attendance and of course Geoff "Six-Pac" White was NOT! Noriyuki "Kamikaze" Kobayashi (see, took care of ya' buddy!), Brian "Capt. CAVEMAN" Messer, Steve "Master Bates" Hancock, Scott "Anybody seen a softball team?" Hager, and "Diamond" Dave Moeder were at Derbyshire and went through drills on a hazy, rainy, windy Saturday Afternoon! *Note: Unless you hear otherwise, your @$$ is required at practice! No News means we are playing/practicing, or come a sunny Sunday (say that three times fast!) afternoon, you will find YOUR @$$ on the pine!

- cordially - The Management.

O.K., enough with the formalities (which we shouldn't have to remind you of, this late in the season.), who can we barrage this week!? Paul "Small" Johnson would be a good candidate. He's always good for a little rousting. So, what did Paul do this Spring Break? Sat at home watching television? - No, too much energy required. Sat at home playing with himself? - No, won't kill enough time!? Went out to the boardwalk and repeatedly pulled down his pants and asked young boys to "rub" his tattoo! - Maybe? Went to the boardwalk and asked young boys to pet his "pet snake"? - Probably. Drank much alcoholic beverages and made a drunken fool of himself? - Definitely, usual routine. Finally, sat at home and dreamt of all the ways he could learn to make contact with a softball by the time he gets up to bat in two weeks!? - Oh, you know it baby! O.K., I shouldn't say all that, the last one didn't actually happen, we all know Paul can hit!?

So, what's in the future for the boys? Well, how about a softball game? Playoff kind that is! It starts this Sunday boys and girls. Operation KICK @$$ will be deployed at 1400 hours. If anyone should bump into Chris "The ghost" Odell, Geoff "Boyee" White, or Matt "zesty cheese" Brito, let them know what we are doing, Thanks. The FUBAR Management would like to take the team photo this Sunday, so please attend, or you will be labeled "Camera Shy", which translates into WUSS in FUBAR terms. So, see you there, it's playoffs guys!

FUBAR News Corporation

"WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY, AND THEY ARE OURS.!"

VICTORY FUBAR's - How sweet it is my friends, how sweet it is.

The FUBAR War Machine began it's onslaught this past Wednesday April 10th and didn't stop until deep inside enemy territory. Operation "Seek and Destroy" was a complete success and the FUBAR's acquired it's third softball championship. The FUBAR's met against GDI on Wednesday night, and although the FWM was slow going at first, the opposition was defeated by a margin of 18-8. Then came the long trek through ice and snow; wind and rain to face the enemy at the battlefield. Blades glistened, war beasts raged, and at the fateful hour... blood flowed. Blood;...blood which flowed through the veins of combatants like a river rages to the sea... and the sea was red that day... red with anger..., red with fear..., and red with despair. Three units approached on that battlefield that fateful day, and after the carnage, only one stood fast and strong... The one by the name FUBAR'S.

The FUBAR's met two opponents Sunday April 14th, and annihilated both. The first victim was LOW STANDARDS, which incidentally was a team the FUBAR's lost a previous skirmish to. Well, the LOW STANDARDS lived "down" to their name and were defeated by the SLAUGHTER clause a mere 40 minutes into battle. Losses were great and the FUBAR's had walked away with a score of 13-2. (We owed them an @$$-kickin' anyway!)

Then came the big guns. GROUND EFFECT... The FUBAR's all-time nemesis. Reformed and ready for combat, GROUND EFFECT would prove to be a worthy opponent...NOT! The FWM was set in motion and when the vultures came to pick at the bones, the FUBAR's had won in a seven inning battle to the death, with a score of 10-2! Scott "The Viking" Hager was a man possessed during the melee and took no prisoners. Scott was 6/6 with 3 Runs, 3 RBI's and a double to lead his men into the mayhem. The FWM was oiled and ready to do some damage Sunday, and that it did boys and girls, that it did!...

So, what now for the FUBAR's? Three championships in the past four years, and a brutal trail of massacre behind. Nothing left but to move forward and continue the legacy.

So, on to the next order of business brothers and sisters, stats! Just sit right back and you'll hear a tale, the tale of a ... Oh, sorry, my bad.

There's the stats, any complaints...tough luck kid, buck up! So, that's the scoop. As a team, the FUBAR's ended the season with a 6-2 record (75%). There were 222 attempts at bat, which resulted in 105 hits. Team batting average of .473! The opposition scored 46 runs against the FUBAR War Machine, the FWM scored 98! A Ratio of 2.13 to 1.00! The critics said it couldn't be done again, not with "that Hager kid in charge, he couldn't lead a dog on a leash with a map!" The FUBAR's proved 'em wrong though, Steve "Moeder does the books and gets MVP eh? Yeah, that wasn't fixed!?" Hancock said "Hager can get us there, we'll do the rest!", but Nori "Mecca-Godzilla" Kobayashi said "FUBAR's Bonsai!" which seemed to sum it up the best...

So ends another great season for the ball club, to which the FUBAR Management would like to give it's thanks to many. FUBAR Management would like to thank all the family, friends, and fans who came out in all kinds of weather conditions to cheer us on and provide a foundation to build on. Thank you for all the support and you will be remembered fondly. Thanks to the ERAU Sports and Rec Dept. for providing us with the expensive "looking" trophies to decorate our homes with and superb officiating (although some may have a different opinion). Thanks to any and all companies who provide the FUBAR's with all the "little" things which help make our lives easier-

Coca Cola, IBC Root Beer, Mitsubishi, Mazda, Ford, Chevrolet, Franklin, TPS Bats, Wilson, Red-Dot Softballs, Honda, Macgregor, Spalding, Rawlings, Checkers, Marlboro, Jim Beam, Coors, Budweiser, Burger King, Hooters, Custom Graphics Designs (for the great jerseys), Xerox, IBM, Smith Corona, Texas Instruments, Nabisco, Disney, Nike, and countless others.

Finally, the FUBAR's would like to thank all of our opponents, without which, our victory would've been slightly easier?

So FUBAR's, for those that will be departing, we wish you well in all your endeavors and stay in touch (in other words, don't let the door hit you in the @$$ on the way out!). For those who will be here, see you on the field...Your dedicated reporter and comrade, and MVP!
